Subject: Unforgettable evening - opening of new office

Dear Jon

We like to thank you and your staff for an unforgettable evening. Today everyone came to the office and talked about the fun experience. We even have some staff members who have attended other murder/mystery dinners and they were extremely skeptical. But only before the evening started. Afterwards, they had only praises for your performance.

Once again, thank you and you can be assured, that whenever we organize something like this again, you are the first company we contact.

Kind regards

Corinne Landolt
